

Become a Campus Riverside Ambassador

Campus Riverside began with the vision of Mayor Patricia Lock Dawson to enhance the connectivity between college students and the Greater Riverside region.

Modeled after Campus Philly for the City of Philadelphia, Campus Riverside is bolstered by data which shows the strong impact of a program dedicated to retaining college students and providing real world opportunities.

As a Campus Riverside Ambassador you will:

Write Blogs

At Campus Riverside, we invite you to unleash your creativity by contributing to our blogs. Whether it's covering exciting events, sharing your experiences, or discussing topics close to your heart, your writing can find a home here. Join us and let your words flow as you craft engaging blogs that resonate with the Riverside community!

Support at Events

Through Campus Riverside, you will have the opportunity to be a crucial part of our event support team. Whether it's assisting with logistics, providing assistance to attendees, or ensuring everything runs smoothly, your contribution will be invaluable in making our events a success.

Spread the word

At Campus Riverside, you can be a part of our dedicated team focused on communication and outreach. We're looking for individuals who are passionate about Riverside and are willing to help spread the word about Campus Riverside and all of the amazing things we are doing.

All volunteers will have to be reviewed, interviewed, and approved to work on Campus Riverside. *****
